Government of Odisha Higher Education Department
Timeline for Phase-II admission into 4 Year Integrated Teacher Education Programme (ITEP) for the Academic Session 2026-27 under SAMS

The timeline for Phase-II admission into 4-Year ITEP Courses for the Academic Session 2026-27 under the Student Academic Management System (SAMS) is given below. Any changes to the prescribed timeline will be published on the SAMS ITEP Portal and through newspaper advertisements. The eligibility criteria for admission into the said course during Phase-II are as follows:

a) The applicant must have appeared in the National Common Entrance Test (NCET)-2026 conducted for admission to ITEP and must possess a valid NCET-2026 scorecard. b) The applicant must have passed the Higher Secondary (+2)/equivalent examinations in any stream from a recognized Board/Institution/University in India. c) The applicant must have secured at least 50% aggregate marks in the +2/equivalent examination, as prescribed for admission to the 4-Year ITEP. d) All applicants, irrespective of their status in the Phase-I admission process, including those who applied or did not apply, were selected or not selected, or were admitted or not admitted for any reason shall be eligible to apply for the Phase-II admission process. e) Applicants belonging to the State of Odisha as well as applicants belonging to other States/Union Territories of India shall be eligible to participate in the Phase-II admission process, subject to fulfilment of the prescribed eligibility criteria. However, preference shall be given to the eligible applicants belonging to the State of Odisha, and applicants from other States/Union Territories shall be considered for selection only after all eligible applicants belonging to the State of Odisha have been considered and seats, if any, remain vacant. The consideration of applicants from other States/Union Territories shall, therefore, be subject to the availability of vacant seats after completion of the selection process for eligible applicants from Odisha, irrespective of the NCTE marks secured by such applicants. f) Applicants from Odisha or other States who have not studied Odia as MIL at the HSC/10th level, or as a subject at the +2/ equivalent level, or have not passed the specific Odia language examination conducted by the Board of Secondary Education (BSE), Odisha at the 10th-standard level, shall also be eligible to apply for and take admission into the 4-Year ITEP. g) However, such applicants shall be required to pass the specific Odia language examination conducted by the Board of Secondary Education (BSE), Odisha, at the 10th Standard level during the course period and before completion of the 4-Year ITEP, as per the applicable rules and norms. Also, to submit the certificate in the admitted HEI.
